FORTY-TWO FARMERS ELECTED BOOZE NOT WANTED:ONTARIO

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—The next government of the province of Ontario may be a coalition composed of Liberals, United Farmers and Labor. At the time of writing, one thing assured is that the Sir William Hearst government has been swamped by the election of an overwhelming majority of various other parties, who may or may not combine to put the Conservatives in opposition in the next cabinet. Forty-two candidates of the United Farmers of Ontario have been unofficially declared elected, twenty-eight Liberals and twenty-seven Conservatives. There are also among the successful candidates eleven Labor candidates, one soldier, and one Independent Liberal. No party has in itself a working majority.

The Referendum

The results of the referendum on the Ontario temperance act are still indefinite, and judging from the slowness of the returns it will be some time before the definite figures are available.

Lloydminster Is Favorable To New Hospital Plan

Bylaw Carried By Immense Majority
On Wednesday's Voting

The returns from the vote on the Municipal Hospital scheme at Lloydminster, which was taken last Wednesday, have now been reported to the Provincial Health Department, and show that the scheme carried with a vote of 562 to 95. Three municipalities were represented in the voting.

A hospital is already in operation at Lloydminster, on the Saskatchewan side of the border, but under a working arrangement by which the Alberta town and district also share in the cost and benefits of the service. By the recent vote the Alberta constituency has been formed into a fully municipalized hospital district, and the Saskatchewan side of the district will adopt the same general policy of taxation and hospital maintenance though under a different provincial law.

PRESENTATION TO RETURNED SOLDIERS OF MANITOU DISTRICT AT BRADY SCHOOL PROVED AN HAPPY, HISTORIC EVENT

The welcome to the returned men of the Brady and Artland district took place at Brady School house on Friday evening, and turned out an unequalled success.

Opening with a dinner to the men, an excellent menu was greatly appreciated and received full justice.

At its conclusion, Mr. J. W. Coe, J.P., toastmaster, called upon Sergeant Major Coe, to give the King, good hands, The second toast, that of the "ladies" was given by Mr. A. of the agreeable duty in the happiest style.

The list concluded with "Our absent comrades", proposed Sergeant Frank Wright, and impressively honoured in silence.

A musical and vocal entertainment followed, Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. F. F. Wright, Miss Chapman, Mr. Walter Deans, and Mr. Rindy, giving great pleasure to the audience. Mrs. A. W. Wright was the accompanist.

Two competitions came next for the returned men—the Hat trimming event being won by Sgt Major K. W. Coe, whose brilliant efforts received the award of the judges, (Mr. Geo. Lawson, and Miss Michel).

The frantic struggles of these amateur milliners were thoroughly enjoyed by a critical crowd.

The boxing competition that followed next, was carried out in faultless fashion, all the latest scientific methods being introduced to the joy of the onlookers.

This competition also fell to Sgt. Major Coe, who carried off both prizes offered for these events

The central feature of the evening then developed, the presentation of the bronze shield, and the watches.

On the above bronze memorial, the name of each man appears, and is inscribed with the following words:

To those who served their Country in the great World War of 1914—1918. That others may live

A special star is affixed opposite the name of each man, who paying the supreme penalty for King and Country, failed to answer the Roll Call.

Our esteemed Reeve, Mr. Philip Chapman, then presented the watches to the undermentioned:—

Thomas Kitching, Frederick Bickerdike, James Kitching—

The above three watches being presented, or sent, to their next of kin, Mr. Chapman said, the words of our Saviour. "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lays down his

BIG CROWD HAS GOOD TIME AT OPENING I.O.O.F HALL; ALL-LOCAL TALENT EXCELS

The new Oddfellow Hall, Chauvin, was formally opened last Thursday by a public concert and dance. This event proved very popular, a large number of visitors from outside points—Ribstone, Edgerton, Wainwright, Dina, Artland etc.—supplementing those of the town and surrounding country. The crowd filled the hall to capacity, and manifestly greatly enjoyed the all-local talent program which was filled with good items.

The interior of the hall was not quite completed, but indicates, in its present shape that it will be one of the most comfortable buildings in the country. Heating, and ventilation are well provided for. Whilst the hall could well have been a little larger the economic use of space has accomplished good results. There is a gallery of good proportions to accommodate the musicians. At the rear end of the hall above the entrance is a gallery, capable of providing seating for forty persons. All this provision, however, was taxed to its limit at the opening.

The generous amount of applause given to the above items of the program was well earned, and the reporter overheard several parties expressing their desire for more entertainments of this nature.

The chairman, Mr. L. B. Nicholson opened the concert with a few appropriate remarks.

The first item on the program being a selection by the orchestra.

Mr. E. Lang was in town, Monday.

The Rebakahs held their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

We are glad to report that Dorothy Saul is making progress towards recovery.

The building of the Merchants Bank is progressing steadily.

A new thing on the street on Monday morning, was bricks and snowdrifts. The bricks for the Merchants Bank; the snowdrifts for—no, we are not building snow houses yet, Quite a number of travelers were seen to get off the train here Tuesday. This speaks well for the business being done here.

It is sad to relate that two young ladies in this town are suffering from cracked hearts.

Are you going to Wainwright Saturday to get that choice Shorthorn bull or heifer you promised yourself. There is some pretty roan calves and yearlings, get one or two then ask your neighbours to call and see them.

Cash unreserved Auction Sale Saturday, OCTOBER 25th starts at (1) o'clock. Earl L. Cork, Owner.

The performers were Mrs. Perry—Miss Mollie Rodden—Matilda, the Pauls, the intended; Pratt Perry—Mr. Worthington, the Lawyer; Miss Violet Perry—Kitty, the maid; and Mr. W. D. Parcels—Henry the servant.

Selection by the orchestra.

A song the "Queen of the Earth" was sung by Mr. L. B. Nicholson, who also sang "Down the Vale"

Selection by the orchestra.

A Chinese song, in which the following ladies took part was especially enjoyed—by Mrs. Freeman. Miss McKinnon, Miss Jean Holbrook. Miss V. Perry, Mrs. Levasseur, Miss Rita Laplante, Miss Ellen Borregaard, Miss Ethel Smith, The ladies looked very charming in their Chinese dresses.

Selection by the orchestra.

The next item was a comedy entitled "That Rascal Pat" was ably performed. Mr. Levasseur making an ideal Rascal Pat; Mr. Jeff Swan—The rich major; Miss Dorothy Smith—The major's niece; Mr. Cyril Smith—The niece's lover; Mrs. Parcels—The niece's companion.

Selection by the orchestra.

Another song entitled "Mollie Mine" was greatly enjoyed by all—Miss Freeman leading as Mollie, and Miss McKinnon as the lover. Miss V. Perry, Miss Jean Holbrook, Mrs. Levasseur, Miss Rita Laplante, Miss Ellen Borregaard and Miss Ethel Smith. chorus girls.

The members of the orchestra were Mrs. Parcels, Miss McKinnon, Mr. Saul, Mr. Nachtergaele, Freddy Laplante, Bert Atkins, Ray Reynolds, Mr. Allan

Victory Loan 1919 Good Business For Alberta Farmers

Appeals on behalf of the Victory Loan of 1919 have been made in general terms and not to any particular classes because it has been felt that the important project must be equally interesting to all classes of citizens in Canada. This conclusion has been justified by the success of previous loan campaigns.

Particular credit must be given, however to the farmers of the dominion for the unselfish and generous appeals. There can be no doubt that the same spirit will characterize their answer to the present appeal.

The farmers are the most conservative business men of the country. Farming is the oldest profession in the world and the most staple. Commercial industries may fluctuate and change with time but the tillers of the soil remain solid and fundamental because their business is the most basic of all. Thus it is that farmers are the most anxious or all classes for the return of normal conditions. A stable industry flourishes under ordinary progressive conditions but is uncertain when times are abnormal.

Farmers gave freely to the Victory Loans for the purpose of ending the side and the rest of the work must be finished. To bring about the resumption of normal conditions the men who fought overseas must be settled in Canada in comfort, credits must be extended to Great Britain and "World Wars Ltd." must be wound up. This all takes money and the Victory Loan of 1919 will furnish that money.

The loan is not a matter of politics nor entirely of patriotism, but essentially of good business, and the farmers of Alberta will appreciate the terms which offer more attractions this year than ever before.

Two years ago Alberta ran second of all the provinces in per capita subscriptions to the Victory Loan. Last year, owing doubtless to the "flu epidemic, Alberta ran third. It would be fine if Alberta could take first place in the third heat this year.

A Western Welcome

From every point of the compass they rolled in, down on a little school house of the prairie they swooped, to greet their men from the front.

Right pleasant to watch so eager a crowd, to mark no lack of enthusiasm.

The spokesman of the evening in tracing the incident that marked the progress of their volunteers in the strenuous past, struck the note of enthusiasm.

Many varied meetings have the walls of that little school house witnessed, but nothing like this, a red letter day indeed, in its short history, long to be remembered.

Deep was the welcome for their men, who beyond the seas in all those days each one as best he could, upheld the honor of a man, no less than the good name of at a loyal subject.

The coldest heart would be touched, the dullest imagination stirred in recalling how these stalwart had left, in remembering the mingled reflections such as these musts have struck the minds of turn: was being celebrated in the haven of home.

mentous events through which they had passed, and whose recall present, and to the men themselves, the accorded welcome doubtless carried conviction that, while in absence memory still held them near to those at home, the cherished hope of a re-union had now received its reward.

Truly a good return, but not without its tinge of sadness in the silent thought devoted to the memory of those good comrades who return no more—over them, for ever pass the whispers of the breeze!

Canadians At Home Will Do As They Did In France And Stick To The Job Till Finished

At "five minutes to eleven" the order was given in France—"Cease firing!" The war was ended.

What a sudden silence must have fallen over the devastated country. What a tremendous change it must have been from a few minutes previous.

"Five minutes to eleven" found the Canadian corps on the job. They had never faltered. There had been no weakening. The Canucks never retreated.

"Five minutes to eleven" is going to strike here at home. Will it find us in the same condition?

The Victory Loan 1515 will open on October 27 and after three weeks selling, the clocks will ring out the "five minutes to eleven" for Canada. The final drive will be over.

Will it find us with a tassk well done? Can we then say that we never faltered? Will we carry it through to the fine bit finish as they did?

You do your share. Then your "five minutes to eleven" will ring in sweet and clear for you will have done as the boys did. you will have stuck to the job until it was done.

Spiced Grape Jam

Wash and pulp the grapes; put the pulp into a porcedain-lined ketatle andh boil for ten minutes; mas through a strainer; add to the skins, and boil slowly for twenty minutes, then add half a cupful of sugar to each cupful of grape.Both the amount of sugar and the time to boil depend on the kind of grapes; some grapes take a little more sugar and longer time to cook; some skins will boil away. others will not boil soft at all. If you find the skins will not get soft mash all through a wire strainer and to each quart of grape jam add the following spices: Two level teaspoon-fuls of ground cinnamon, two level spoonfuls of ground allspice, one level teaspoonful of ground mace, two level teaspoonfuls salt. and half a cupful of good cider vinegar, and boil for one hour.

This is very good with cold meats or poultry and is put into glasses or jars the same as jelly.

The Earwig That Held Up A Railway

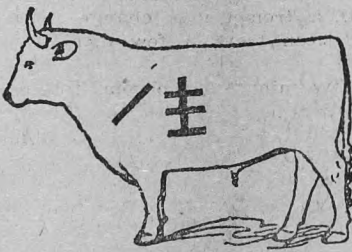

One busy morning, when trains were teeming along the District Rail way to the city, there came a sudden stoppage. A signal stood at "danger" and no train could pass it. Minute after minute went by, and the whole service of trains bound for the city came to a standstill. Hundreds of important people in the most important city in the world were kept waiting. The curious point was that the railway officials could not account for the behaviour of the signal, which works automatically. A man was set to investigate the mystery, and Earwigs, when day is come, creep for shelter into any cranny in which they can escape the light; and this one, after its night's foraging, had by some means found its way into the mechanism of the signal. Its little body was wedged between the delicate points of the electrical apparatus and had caused a short circuit. And so, through this trifling accident of an insect mistaking its way home, trainload after trainload of city men were held up.

Six years ago a spider brought about a stoppage on an Irish railway, where two hours were spent in discovering the cause. Bees once took possession of an entire train in South Afrisa; locusts and caterpillars have made the lines so slippery that other trains have been brought to a standstill; while a hedgehog, falling asleep between the points at an important section of the London and North-Western Railway, once kept the points open when they should have been closed, so sending a train on to the wrong line, with fatal results.

DRAMA IS VALUABLE FACTOR IN LIFE OF THE COMMUNITY

The drama as factor in community life is one of great importance, and in rural districts is sadly lacking. The result of this gap is not so easy to realize or define. To many of our readers, coming as they did from the cities and from older more established communities, the earlier experiences of homesteading, coupled with the ever present dream of a grand, happy, healthy and prosperous future, in a setting of vast prairie and a near perfect climate, was itself a drama—the drama of life, full of hope and optimism. In those days the need of dramatic presentations was at its lowest point; fortunately for all concerned that this was so, in view of the fact that drama could not be presented profitably at the large number of small rural points spread over the vast Western plains. Even at the present time, it is utterly impossible for dramatic companies of merit to visit the rural towns. As a matter of fact towns like Edmonton and Saskatoon are this season experiencing the greatest difficulty in obtaining anything but ordinary talent. The shows presented in these cities to-day are not of the merit and charm that one would have expected—they are merely the best the various managers can obtain.

How much more difficult is the commercialization of first-class drama presented at the smaller towns—commercially speaking it is impossible. Motion pictures have in a large number of places done great things in serving to partly satisfy the love for drama, as has also the Chatauqua activities. Chauvin has not been favored with a visit from the Chatauqua people, and is consequently the amount of the bonus ahead. The visits of moving pictures have been few and far between. So we have become quite accustomed to our lack of drama with its pleasure and education.

Drama forms a large and necessary part in the upbringing of our children: the fairy story with it's fantastic episodes portraying the ultimate victory of the good in human life; the most popular games are those which directly or indirectly aid the players to taste the joys of achievement through effort; later in life the youth and maiden, by the force of their growing natures, begin to translate their earlier play-dramas into the action-dramas of their greater capacities.

Through all ages and stages of civilization the drama has been a potential factor in the presentation of ideals. From the dances of the savage depicting war, hunt, love and plenty, the drama has been used to upbuild every social, moral and religious ideal known to man.

With the advancement of the arts of writing and reading and pictorial arts, the drama has served in a larger degree as recreation and amusement, though not losing all its educative value. And too, like every other human activity it has its faults and evils. Thus we have had the Puritanical enmity to the stage. To-day, however, it is commonly recognized in the war-swept countries that the drama was of great value in maintaining the moral of the people.

We are of the opinion that the local ladies and gentlemen, who give their time to the preparation and presentation of the drama, such as we witnessed in the new Oddfellow Hall last Thursday at the Veterans who will present drama November 11th are thereby performing a distinct service to the community. We admit it may be termed a 'bunch of foolishness and folly' but as we are all only older children and need to play well to enable us to live and work well, these local players using their talents so freely, certainly deserve our thanks. Not alone do they provide amusement for us but they are saving our money from going away from the district, the proceeds of their entertainment does not profit them personally any more than the rest of us. The proceeds are going to the objects for which entertainments are given and result in permanent improvements in our district.

Nor would we overlook the sterling value of our local band of musicians composing our orchestra. They are small in numbers, but possessing more than ordinary measure of skill and talent. They too, have devoted many long evening hours to preparation, at considerable sacrifice and even personal discomfort in their enthusiasm and as a result gave us a most excellent performance. The most sincere and acceptable thanks we can offer these workers is shown by giving them not alone a few words of encourage, but by a more material form of recognition by calling for their services, as frequently as occasion permits and facilitating their valuable work in every possible manner. By doing these simple things we are making an easy natural start in the upbuilding of our social civic life in the fields of music and drama. There is more talent in our own midst than we are inclined to believe and with this talent we have the choice of doing two things; firstly snubbing it down into oblivion and second by giving it due and proper encouragement and nurture in order that it may develop more to the benefit of itself and to the community in general.

INSURANCE

LOANS

The Cheapest Rate for Farm Buildings is quoted at Forty Cents per $100 per annum; Three years for $1.20 per $100; and this rate is only quoted by the WAWAESA MUTUAL ASSURANCE COMPANY. This is a purelyfarmers' company, and handles only farm property

INSURE NOW AND FEEL SAFE

Canadian Pacific Railway Lands: Call in and see the price list: 20 years terms, one-tenth cash payment with application; no further payment of capital until the fourth year. Interest at six per cent per annum. If the necessary improvements are executed in the first year, the interest will be reduced to two per cent for two years. This is a good proposition, and these lands are being rapidly absorbed. Do not delay until too late, as these lands will be turned over again at a big profit.

Hudsons Bay Lands. I have the latest prices on all the holdings of the Hudsons Bay Company and am ready to quote you at any time. The terms are:—8 equal payments with interest at seven per cent per annum. The prices are now down to a very low figure, and these lands are sure to turn out to be a good business proposition. Values will soar again, and the H.B. Lands are mighty good buying at present quotations. That quarter alongside your own will make a fine addition to your farm; and, believe me, it is better to be in on the ground floor when you buy.

Loan Companies have all kinds of Money to Loan on Improved Farm Property, First Mortgage. I am advised by one of the most reliable firms that their great concern at the present time is to find sufficient applications to take up this surplus money. Interest at eight per cent. Five or ten year terms. No commissions charged to the Mortgagor; and the costs of obtaining same were never so low as at the present time. If you are interested, call or write; but remember that there is no shortage of cash for this purpose.

Everyone Who Bought Canada's Victory Bonds Made Money

EVERY one of the million and a half subscribers to Canada's Victory Bonds knows that he can sell them today for more than he paid for them.

Every one who bought Canada's Victory Bonds has received 5½ per cent. interest per annum—paid twice a year.

Over half a million Canadians who bought Canada's Victory Bonds on the instalment plan saved money that they would not otherwise have saved.

The guarantee back of Canada's Victory Bonds is the same as the guarantee back of a One Dollar or a Two Dollar bill. There is this difference, however, that you get interest on the Victory Bonds and you don't on the One or Two Dollar bill.

Canada's Victory Bonds will always be accepted as security for a loan.

Banks are ready to loan money on Canada's Victory Bonds.

Canada's Victory Bonds may be turned into cash at any time.

There is no other way in which you can invest your money with such absolute security—paying such a good rate of interest.

Canada will soon give her citizens an opportunity to buy Victory Bonds 1919. It will probably be the last chance to buy Canada's Victory Bonds on such favorable terms.

Prepare to buy as many Victory Bonds this time as you now wish you had been able to buy the last time

Where It's Summer All The Time

This is the season when you are thinking of where you will spend the winter. You cannot do better than consult our Grand Trunk Pacific representatives. The railway and steam ship route to North Pacific Coast points and California is the new way and is without a peer. The ocean voyage through the quiet seas of the "Inside Passage" between Prince Rupert, Vancouver, Victoria, and Seattle is the finest ocean trip in America. Winter rates will be announced shortly. For information and literature apply to any Agent of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, or write W. E. Duperow, General Passenger Agent Winnipeg.

ONE MORTGAGE AFTER ANOTHER

"Ever tempted to sell your automobile?" asked the Cheerful Idiot.
"The temptation is strong enough," replied Mr. Inbadd, "but there are too many points involved. You know I mortgaged my house in order to buy the machine."
"Yes, I knew that."
"Well, I mortgaged the machine in order to build the garage and now I've had to mortgage the garage in order to buy gasoline."

"life for a friend".
In the following order, Sgt. Major Coe, K. W.; Sgt. Wright, F. F. (Military Medalist); L. Cpl. Michel, A. (Military Medalist); Pte. Macintosh, D.; Pte. Vine, J. H.; Pte. Graham D.; Pte. Bagley, A.; Pte. Coe, J. W.—were each presented with a handsome watch, inscribed.

"Presented to— by the Citizens rendered on the battlefields of France".

In making the presentation Mr Chapman expressed the pleasure it afforded him and the community, of which he was this evening the spokesman of the men home again, making ing special reference to the gallantry in the field of Messrs Wright and Michel.

In proceeding, Mr Chapman in felicitous terms, reviewed the events of the war, expressing the pride we all felt in our volunteers for active service. Rumours had been received of the loss of arms and legs, but he was glad to see how these stories were disproved, when he looked round at the men now present.

Each man suitably responded, but it was left for Mr J. W. Coe, J.P., to formally speak for the whole body. Which he did in a characteristically earnest and witty speech. Paying an eloquent tribute to the fallen, he observed that we have three gallant lads, who most assuredly died, that Canada, as a nation might live, and that although they lay under the little white crosses away in France, yet we were thinking of them, and honoring them for the heroic death they died.

Mr Coe also, in thanking the district for their delightful present, said the remarks of the reeve will always be an inspiration. We shall each regard the watch as our greatest treasure. We shall view it as the symbol of, at least one duty well done, hearty vote of thanks to the reeve, and this, seconded by Sgt Wright, was carried by acclamation.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. The music supplied by Mr Voss, in conjunction with Mr. J. McKague and his son Arthur also combined with the skill and energy of Mr Foley as floor manager in his usual inimitable style rendered this portion of the programme more attractive than ever.

It will be noticed that M. A. W. Wright's name was omitted in the presentation. We would remind our readers, however that our friend received his present on return from active service.

We were almost overlooking the arrangements of the refreshment stall. These were in the hands of Messrs Geo. Masson, A. Hall and Henry Johannes, old friends who have long since established their reputation in that line, so we need say no more.

For the success of the evening, and we think it was complete, we are indebted to the efforts of the committee and sub-committees of whom in offering congratulations, we feel con opinion of those present. For the charming appearance of the dinner table, no less than for the artistic taste displayed by the ladies' committee, in so admirably toning down the harsh lines of the school room, in their general scheme of decoration, our thanks are also due.

As for the ladies who generously contributed numerous and noble baskets, the remarkable speed with which these were emptied, offered direct evidence of pleasure conferred.

In conclusion we are glad to mention that letters of appreciation of what our boys did, have been received by Sgt-Mjr Coe, from the following officers under whom they served:— Lt-Colonel J. S. Rankin, 46th Canadian Battalion, Major H. J. Binnie, 65th Battalion, Captain M. L. G. Armstrong, 65th Battalion.

We may mention that the intention was to present each man with a cheque, but until the accounts are finally closed, this must be postponed to a later date.

The Live Cattle Export Trade

While in Europe studying the market for Canadian meat products, Mr. H. S. Arkell, Live Stock Commissioner, discovered with respect to beef cattle that a problem exists that will prove a worthy test of Canada's nerve, ingenuity and determination. According to Mr. Arkell's statement that appears in the October Agricultural Gazette, „the difficulties are great but they are not insurmountable. He says:

“In the Argentine and Australia are more and better cattle than in Canada and these countries are providing much cheaper sources of supply. The Argentine has landed live cattle in Italy and is proposing to do likewise for Germany via Antwerp. The United States is trading with France, and is busy in Holland, endeavouring to secure passage to Germany via Rotterdam. We have secured this concession for Canada on account of the health of Canadian cattle and it now remains to see what advantage we can take of it. Two Canadian firms only, one Western and one Eastern, have as yet dared to face the risks of live cattle export and they deserve all the success and profit which they are likely to obtain from it. I am firmly of the opinion that this live cattle trade must become a necessary part of our cattle policy. So far as Europe is concerned, we are only at the beginning of this business, even if in the end it prove not to be permanent. Germany, France, and Belgium are now in the market for fat cattle and the landed prices is from $65 to $75 per head. Further, next spring there will be large demand for feeding and breeding cattle the latter chiefly of the holstein and Shorthorn sorts. I recommend the organization of companies of producers to join with commission men in the development of this business. The present avenues of distribution must be widened; otherwise other countries will secure the business to Canada's disadvantage.”

The Cow

The cow is a most wonderful laboratory. She takes the grasses of the pasture, and the roughage of the field and converts them into the most perfect food for man. In that food there is a mysterious something which scientists have found essential to the highest health of the human race, and which can be found nowhere else. Men have sought for centuries the fabled Fountain of Youth. The nearest approach to that fountain which has yet been discovered is the udder of the cow. Without her milk, her children languish, the vigour of the adult declines, and the vitality of the human race runs low. Millions of these gentle, unobtrusive “roster mothers” of man have become the victim of this war. The world faces a shortage of dairy products. Let us help meet this shortage in every way we can.

A favor that requires nerve to ask, requires no nerve to refuse.
